Description

Antique oak dresser base with multiple drawers This rare dresser base was made circa 1800 and has 2 rows of drawers. The design makes this an attractive looking piece and gives extra storage compared to the usual drawer configurations. The oak dresser stands on 4 turned front legs that join the pot board base. An antique dresser base makes a versatile item of furniture as it can look fantastic in places around your home. Imagine the joy of owning this oak dresser base and how good it will look as it stands in your home.
