Description

A magnificent, fine and impressive antique 1930's 33.25 carat diamond, 0.30 carat emerald and platinum Art Deco bracelet; part of our diverse antique diamond bracelets collection. This magnificent, fine and impressive antique Art Deco bracelet has been crafted in platinum. The broad, articulated bracelet is composed of alternating pierced decorated rectangular designs, all in the iconic geometric, Art Deco manner. The three largest rectangular links each bear a stunning feature collet set marquise cut diamond to the centre, flanked with two further marquise cut diamonds in a horizontal linear formation. This formation is further flanked with two square cut diamonds and expands to create a marquise shaped setting incorporating six pavé set Old European round cut. This central design is framed with an angular border incorporating twenty-four pavé set Old European round cut diamonds, and the outer border bears a further thirty diamonds. The alternating subtly rounded rectangular links are embellished with a vertical central array of three collet set square cut diamonds, flanked to either side with six channel set baguette cut emeralds. This central linear arrangement ...
