Description

A fine quality antique Victorian inlaid walnut three decanter tantalus and games box. The beautifully figured walnut profusely inlaid with floral decoration to the front, top and sides. Shaped brass mounts to the upper section corners and brass carrying handles to the sides. The centre top with a brass engraved presentation plaque dated 1899. Beneath the original bevel edged mirror and fitted compartment with three square cut glass decanters and original faceted glass stoppers. The three decanters are in excellent condition with no damage, each having a hallmarked silver plaque on a silver chain for brandy, port and sherry. There is a secret compartment in the base, which springs open by pressing the secret button in front of the central decanter, revealing playing cards with score markers. In very good condition with a fine patination and colour. Please contact us for further details and delivery information / price.
