Description

A good quality Victorian mahogany side table dating from the late 19th century. It stands on beautifully turned tapering legs and has two drawers, each with brass ring pull handles. It also has a raised shaped gallery along the back edge. It is in good condition with a nice mellow patina. There are signs of age and use, some small marks and light knocks but no major damages and it displays well. The drawers open well and are generally clean and tidy inside. The table has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
