Description

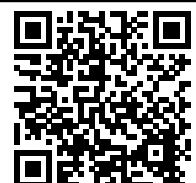

A fine example of a large Victorian Sterling Silver serving spoon. It is superb quality and decorated in the traditional 'King's Pattern' with a shell on the handle. It is made from a good heavy gauge silver and weighs approximately 103g. It is clearly hallmarked for Sheffield, 1896 and the maker James Dixon and Sons. It is in excellent condition for its age. There are no major damages and it displays beautifully. There are some faint surface scratches and a few light marks but nothing detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use.
