Description

~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A stunning original antique French clock set. Beautifully made in the classical style of Louis XVI in ormolu (finely gilded bronze) and a lovely variegated specimen green onyx. To the sides are fluted pilasters and the clock is surmounted by a twin handled urn. Candelabra are formed of a central flaming torché with two arms of scrolling acanthus. The dial cream porcelain enamel on copper with delicate floral swags between the numbers. It is complete with its original finely fretted gilt hands. Below the dial is a mount of scrolling and blossoming acanthus. The French movement is of high quality and is by Louis Japy. It is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is a replacement. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video of the clock set, please ask and we will send you a link or paste the following into your browser:
