Description

This is an elegant near pair of Georgian style wing armchairs in absolutely beautiful condition dating from the early 20th century. The handsome pair are recently reupholstered in a very good quality tasteful slate blue fabric with ochre coloured floral bloom design. The chairs are very close in style both on curved mahogany cabriole legs, having outswept flat topped arm design and wing back as well as very comfortable feather filled squab cushions. The fabric and upholstery is all in first class condition and the chairs are totally sound and solid with no movement or damage to the frames. These are a very tasteful pair in a most elegant design rare to find in such perfect order. The chairs measure 110 cms high by 88 cms and 78 cms wide by 85 deep with the seats being 48 cms from the floor. They both have a very comfortable and spacious seat area. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £75 plus vat to most destinations.
