Description

Gorgeous late Art Deco earrings formed of two hoops of iridescent mother of pearl suspended from nine-carat gold fittings. Suitable for pierced or non-pierced ears. The earrings are in very good vintage condition, with screw fittings in good working order. It's unusual to find pieces like this which have survived the decades without any chips or cracks, so these are quite rare. Size: 3.6cm from top to bottom. The big circles are approximately 2.7cm diameter. Weight: 3.0g.
