Description

A good example of an anglo-endian elephant table dating from the early 20th Century. It has a round top with three large carved elephant heads below, complete with wooden tusks. It stands on three legs carved and shaped as elephant's trunks, joined by a lower shelf. It is made from a dense hardwood and has its original ebonised finish. It is a nice small size, ideal as a plant stand or lamp table. It is in good original condition and is strong and sturdy. There is slight wear to the finish here and there and some minor surface marks commensurate with age but nothing detrimental and no major damages. It has been lightly polished and it is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
