

SA1107375

19th Century watercolour painting HB Carter

Price

GBP 360

| USD $487 | EUR 421

Item Reference: SA1107375Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

A beautiful watercolour painting of an English harbour scene. Painted and signed by Henry Barlow Carter. Henry Barlow Carter was born in Bermondsey South London in 1803 but was living in Plymouth when he first started exhibiting. He then moved to Hull in East Yorkshire and by 1830 was living in Scarborough. He painted principally in watercolours, and primarily scenes of Yorkshire, with his large atmospheric seascapes inspired by J.M.W. Turner. He exhibited at The Royal Academy from 1827-1830 and also at the British Institution and Suffolk Street. These exhibitions are listed in Gray's Dictionary. Henry Barlow Carter (British 1803-1867) Signed bottom right corner. There are 2 of his works in three British museum. Painting 24cm x 17cm Gilt Frame 38cm x 31cm The painting is in good, original condition with strong colours. The painting is framed in a gilt gesso frame and glazed.

Seller Details

Nicholas Tempest

Gloucestershire United Kingdom

Tel: 07887 683468

International Tel: +44 7887 683468

