Description

A mid Victorian centre table in walnut, the octagonal top with moulded edge and with a broad crossbanded edge in burr walnut, on a recessed frieze with fine ebonised moulded border over a quadruped consisting of a scrolled brace on a turned moulded shaft with a stylised cannon barrel, raised on a crossed base with scrolled supports above carved with paterae and scales, on bracket feet. English, circa 1870. Condition: Overall very good, the table is in excellent condition with no damage or marks, it stands well with no wobbling, there is one tiny piece missing from the turned barrel, otherwise it has a great appearance and a pleasing colour and patina.
