

SA1107535

PAIR of Antique George IV Silver Alms Dishes by Samuel Hennell, London 39.88ozt

Price

GBP 2,300

| USD $3,112 | EUR 2,691

Item Reference: SA1107535Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

DESCRIPTION: A pair of George IV silver alms dishes by the exceptional and highly recognised maker Samuel Hennell, London. One bears the date letter 'g' for 1822 and the other 'h' for 1823. Each of circular form with moulded foliate borders, both inscribed to the underside of the base 'The Elegant Gift was Presented to Miss Noble by Mrs Richard Croft July 1823' DIMENSIONS: The approximate maximum dimensions are 29 cm diameter and the total approximate wight is 39.88ozt AGE: The the date marks of a 'g' and 'h' dates these to 1822 and 1823. CONDITION: The condition of the alms plates is lovely as can be seen from the photographs, there are no dents. Please study photographs carefully as they form part of the description and condition, as what you view is exactly what you will receive. Overall this is a lovely PAIR of alms dishes by an exceptional and highly recognized maker, so happy bidding.

Internal Ref: Pair alms dishes

Seller Details

N Wilson Antiques Clocks

Cheshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07704 152890

International Tel: +44 7704 152890

