Description

If I didn't know it was French I would think it was from the Glasgow School with the Macintosh design, totally iconic from the handles to the designs to the front. It could have been a pupil from the Glasgow school or simply a follower. Its also extremely good quality which can be seen from the dovetails to the drawers. Anyway it has real presence and now-days would make an amazing vanity in the bathroom or simply a chest of drawers. Made from solid Oak which we have bleached to lighten and in overall excellent original condition for the home. Height 84 cm Width 87 cm Depth 51.5 cm Drawer Depths 8,13,13,13 cm
