Description

An exquisite solid silver Czech Art Deco cigarette case featuring 14ct rose gold bands on the lid. The oblong serpentine body is adorned with engine-turned panels showcasing varying geometric designs. The lid is further embellished with triangular medallions containing flower motifs and rectangular plaques in 14kt rose gold, engraved with scrolling foliage in classic Art Deco style. The richly gold-washed interior retains its original bands. The dual compartments are perfect for carrying two types of cigarettes, or alternatively, for storing banknotes or business cards in one compartment. This piece exemplifies exceptional craftsmanship and is a beautiful representation of Art Deco design.
