Description

A stylish set of six Art Deco period coffee cans with the original matching saucers. These fantastic examples are mounted in silver frames, with geometric pierced sides and elegant scroll handles. The porcelain cans and saucers are by Crescent & Sons and are decorated with a charming black and white checkerboard pattern, along with gorgeous bands of blue colouring. The cans and saucers are completed with six matching hallmarked silver coffee bean spoons. A collectable set, being both decorative and a great gift for the coffee lover. Dimensions below.
