Description

A late c.18th, George III period, mahogany tilt-top breakfast or dining table. A high quality table, featuring a thick, solid, oval shaped, very well figured mahogany top. Utilising a hinged tilt mechanism with gilt brass thumb screws, making the top removable, and tiltable. Supported by a well proportioned ring turned stem support, raised on a quartet of carved reeded legs, terminating in brass castors. An attractive and very high quality table. Made from early, very heavy mahogany. In very good condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 69 cm (27.125") tall, and the top is 124.5 cm (49") by 105.75 cm (45.625"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Some marks and blemishes, all in keeping with age and use. No loose joints. Very good wax polish finish. Sensitively serviced in our workshop. Delicately cleaned and waxed. Very much ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
