

SA1108006

Impressive 19th Century PAIR Antique Georgian Lead Planters / Troughs

Price

ReservedItem Reference: SA1108006*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

This pair of original antique GEORGIAN lead planters / troughs is a true gem for any collector or lover of architectural antiques. The stunning geometric design and intricate detailing make them a standout addition to any garden or outdoor space. They are beautifully decorated to all four sides so can stand in the the center of an area and be admired from all sides. Crafted in the 19th century these date to circa 1830, these planters are a rare find and are sure to impress any admirer of antique architecture. These planters are perfect for displaying your favorite flowers or plants, and their durable construction ensures they will last for years to come. Don't miss out on the opportunity to own a piece of history with these impressive antique planters. The approximate MAXIMUM dimensions (note this varies slightly due to the nature of the item being made from lead) : 33 1/2 inches / 85 cm long x 11 1/4 inches / 28.5 cm deep x 11 inches / 28 cm high PLEASE NOTE these are very heavy items. CONDITION: The planters are in lovely antique condition as can be seen from the photographs, as would be expected there are knocks and dents commensurate with age and use and to the en...

Internal Ref: Pair Georgian Lead planters

Seller Details

N Wilson Antiques Clocks

Cheshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07704 152890

International Tel: +44 7704 152890

