Description

DESCRIPTION: This is an exquisite 8 Day bronze French ormolu and serves panels mantel clock. The serve panels are beautifully decorated with baskets of flowers, fruit and doves, and maidens. The dial is beautifully decorated with a cherub and instruments and is signed 'J. J. Peters & Co BRISTOL'. The serves panels are signed and we have taken a photograph of the signature which appears below the close up of the dial. This truly is a very high quality clock, a beautiful example of the best of mid-19th century craftsmanship. The quality and detailing of the mounts is just superb as can be seen from the photographs. two doves with foliage and flowers sit on top of the clock, whilst to the centre of the clock case is adorned with flowers, foliage and swags and the base is flanked by maidens. The dial is beautifully decorated with a cherub and instruments and is signed 'J. J. Peters & Co BRISTOL'. The back also has a door convex glass that opens to access the movement and to allow for the pendulum to be hung. The movement is an 8 day, striking once on the half hours and the hours. The back of the movement is numbered 2921, and stamped with the JAPPY FRERES & CIE EXPN 1835 GD ...
