Description

DESCRIPTION: This is a truly magnificent Chinese Blue and White with gilt bronze mounts bracket clock which is of impressive grand proportions. The waisted form body has pretty flowers and birds incorporated in the patterns and is flanked by detailed lion head ring handles. The clock is finished with a decorative finial, over a domed cover top. The circular dial is surrounded with a lovely decorative flower and swags bezel and is covered with a bevelled glass door. The dial itself has pretty Roman numeral cartouches and small Arabic numerals above and is beautifully decorated to the centre. The base the clock is raised on is beautifully detailed with gadroons and is raised on three exceptionally detailed lion's paw feet. The movement is nice and clean and is in perfect working order and happily striking the hours on the hours and once at half past. The movement is stamped with a trademark of 'A1' inside and oval and the number '21972' the pendulum is also stamped with the same number showing it to be original to the movement. The movement is complete with it's winding key. Please note : the wine bottle is only to show the grand proportions of this clock and is no...
