Description

DESCRIPTION: This is a wonderful mahogany fusee wall clock with built in bracket which is signed 'J. A. WHEATLEY CARLISLE'. The movement to this clock is excellent being a very good quality fusee movement. The case is made from wonderful mahogany which has some superb grain and is a wonderful colour. The clock has a lovely built in bracket which give it a superb grand appearance. Below the dial is lovely applied carved scroll detailing which sets it off beautifully. The case has a wonderful patina which can only be gained through age. The dial this is off white and is marked out with Roman numerals and is signed 'J. A. WHEATLEY CARLISLE'. The bezel is brass and there is also a catch mechanism for closing and releasing the dial. To each side of the case there is a door to access the movement and allow the pendulum to be hung. J.A. WHEATLEY of CARLISLE is listed in 'Watchmaker & Clockmakers of the World Volume 2 by Brian Loomes' as follows 'WHEATLEY. James Atkinson. Carlisle. b 1834 son of Thomas. 1860 - 79 and business continues today. The movement itself is excellent being a single fusee movement. The backplate is nicely shaped. The clock is in good working order...
