Description

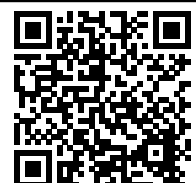

Three unusual tin glazed manganese early Dutch Delft tiles in very good condition. Two of the tiles depict biblical scenes, one showing Christ's betrayal kiss in the Garden of Gethsemane; the second showing Jesus expelling the money lenders from the Temple. The third tile has a Dutch coastal scene of church and ships. All scenes are painted in magenta and all three are tastefully surrounded by plain wooden frames. The coastal scene is slightly smaller as shown in the main photo. These three tiles, which are ready to hang, would be a most interesting wall display. c. 1790 Code: CMT 80 Each frame is 6" 15 cm square
