Description

A smart and very well made pair of antique mahogany and leather military campaign side tables. They were made in England, and date from around the 1930's. The quality is fantastic, they are a very useful size and have polished backs, so can be used either as bedside tables or as free standing side tables in a living room. They have lovely chestnut coloured tooled leather tops, with brass edges and brass handles. We have recently had them re-polished, the condition is excellent for their age.
