Description

This is an antique desktop specimen case. An English, mahogany and brass miniature chest of drawers in Art Nouveau taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Beautifully presented miniature collectors case with an Art Nouveau flourish. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest throughout. Graced with rich caramel hues to the fine casework. Arranged as a two over a trio of full-width graduated drawers. Each dressed with striking brass drop handles with grape motif. Deep fascia and broad dovetail joints to each drawer box. Raised upon a continuous bracket foot with shaped aprons. This is a charming antique desktop specimen case, with great colour and a useful suite of drawers. Ideal for the collector, delivered ready for the home.
