Description

This exquisite miniature longcase clock is a timeless blend of 17th-century design inspiration and meticulous craftsmanship. The oak carcase, richly veneered with Walnut veneers on the front door, base, and sides, exudes a sense of sophistication and warmth. Its barley twist columns on the hood add a striking architectural detail, reminiscent of period grandeur. At its heart is a high-quality brass weight-driven movement, providing reliable 8-day timekeeping and striking the hours with precision. The brass dial features a silvered, engraved chapter ring with Roman numerals, a classic touch that completes its period-style authenticity. This clock is more than just a timepiece; it's a statement of elegance and artistry, ideal for those who appreciate historical design and modern precision. Whether as a functional heirloom or a decorative focal point, this clock is perfect for any home with a sense of tradition and style. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 66? or 168 cm CIRCA. 1890 Provenance: Private collection, UK Would you like to view this clock in your own home? Contact us to arrange a viewing with our Homeview service. (T&C's apply.)
