Description

This exceptional Grande Sonnerie carriage clock is a masterpiece of horological artistry, housed in a stunning gilded gorge case. The clock is presented in remarkably original condition, featuring a large top glass aperture that showcases the original bi-metallic, jewelled lever escapement, a hallmark of outstanding craftsmanship. This clock offers the luxurious functionality of Grande Sonnerie striking, with a melodic "ting-tang" chime on two gongs that marks the quarters, half, and three-quarter hours, followed by the hour strike. The petite sonnerie and silent options can be effortlessly selected using a discreet lever at the base, catering to your preference for quiet elegance or full chime performance. Additional Features Integrated alarm function, blending practicality with charm. Bevelled white glass panels, all in superb and original condition, enhancing the clock's visual appeal and ensuring clear visibility of its intricate details. A fully original movement, preserved in outstanding condition, delivering both reliability and authenticity. This Grande Sonnerie carriage clock is not only a remarkable timepiece but also a captivating work of art. P...
