Description

Elevate your home with the timeless beauty of this finely crafted French Four Glass Mantel Clock, a masterpiece of elegance and precision from circa 1900. The gilded case exudes sophistication, adorned with intricate applied Pegasus flying horses and Doric-style columns featuring rare tulip-shaped bases. The 8-day movement exemplifies the exceptional quality of French craftsmanship from the period, striking the hours and half-hours on a crisp bell. Its white enamel dial boasts delicate swag decoration, harmonising beautifully with the ornate pendulum, which features a central enamel plaque of a graceful female head surrounded by shimmering rhinestones. This mantel clock combines artistry and functionality, making it a stunning focal point and a cherished addition to any fine collection. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 11 ½" or 29 cm CIRCA. 1900 Provenance: Private collection, UK Would you like to view this clock in your own home? Contact us to arrange a viewing with our Homeview service. (T&C's apply.)
