Description

Introduce timeless charm to your home with this delightful cottage-style longcase clock, crafted by Richard Alexander of Devizes, Wiltshire, circa 1785. This beautifully proportioned clock features a plain oak case with an elegant flat-top caddy, a long trunk door, and attached pillars framing the hood door, embodying simplicity and sophistication. The 12-inch square painted dial is adorned with charming strawberry and floral corner motifs, a subsidiary seconds dial, and a distinctive 'mouth'-style calendar aperture, all complemented by the original blued steel hands. Housed within is an 8-day, weight-driven movement, expertly designed to rack strike the hours on a clear, resonant bell, ensuring both functionality and authenticity. This enchanting clock combines refined aesthetics with excellent craftsmanship, making it a perfect addition to any collection or a statement piece for a cosy interior. Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 77½" or 197 cm CIRCA. 1785 Provenance: Private collection, UK Would you like to view this clock in your own home?
