

SA1108538

ANTIQUE FRENCH ORMOLU MANTEL CLOCK – HENRI JACOT

Price

GBP 5,500

| USD $7,420 | EUR 6,434

Item Reference: SA1108538

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 32 cm (12.6")

Description

Add timeless elegance to your collection with this magnificent antique French ormolu clock, crafted by the renowned Henri Jacot. A perfect representation of Louis XVI design, this piece seamlessly combines luxurious materials and exquisite artistry. Key Features: Ornate Ormolu Detailing: Gilded bronze elements that exude sophistication. Stunning Porcelain Panels: Decorated with a rich Bleu Céleste ground and hand-painted cherubs, flowers, and exotic birds. Classical Urn Finial: Crowned with a beautifully crafted urn, draped with a garland of roses. Elegant White Enamel Dial: Adorned with delicate Breguet-style hands for a touch of refinement. This clock is a true statement piece, perfect for collectors or anyone looking to enhance their décor with a slice of French history. Its intricate design and exceptional craftsmanship make it not only a functional timepiece but also a remarkable work of art. Don't miss the opportunity to own this rare and extraordinary clock. Contact us today for more details or to arrange a viewing! Serviced and guaranteed for 3 years. Height: 11 ½" or 32 cm (Including base) CIRCA. 1855 Provenance: Private collection, UK ...

Seller Details

The Antique Clock Co.

West Yard Barn West Street Abbotsbury Weymouth Dorset DT3
4JT United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 01305 873852

International Tel: +44 1305 873852

