Description

A fine quality copper jelly mould with attractive "column" design....the copper is quite a heavy gauge and the tinning inside the mould is still very good with no thinning....this handsome mould was made by Benham in the last quarter of the 19thc and has their mark of a cross on top of an orb and with their pattern number 495.....the mould is in very good condition with a natural "unpolished" colour. English. C1860-95.
