Description

A good SILVER CARRIAGE CLOCK in perfect working order. The 8-day French timepiece movement retaining its original lever platform escapement and pretty enamel dial is within its English hallmarked silver case with cast silver bow handle to the top. The movement is stamped with the trademark for Duverdry & Bloquel. Hallmarked: Birmingham 1911.  DUVERDRY & BLOQUEL, a renowned clockmaking company in Saint-Nicholas-d'Aliermont, near Dieppe, can be traced back to 1867 when the company was first formed by Albert Villon, Joseph Bloquel and Paul Duverdry. Following Villon's death in 1902 Joseph Bloquel and Paul Duverdry established a new partnership, using the trademark of a lion, that can be seen on the backplate of this clock.
