Description

Antique Large Pair of 19th Century Neoclassical Jardiniere Statue Stands – Marquetry Pedestal Tables with Ormolu Mounts and Marble Tops. This pair of 19th-century neoclassical jardiniere statue stands features exquisite marquetry and ormolu mounts, with marble tops. The differing decorations on each piece add a unique charm to the set. They are of fine quality, solid, and heavy, with no loose joints, making them both stable and impressive decorative finds. Crafted with marquetry veneer on a softwood construction, these pieces show no signs of woodworm. The elegant marquetry inlays and quality craftsmanship give these stands a distinguished feel and a beautiful patina that enhances their appeal. Dimensions (each): 43cm x 43cm x 129cm high. In good antique condition, the stands show the expected signs of age, including historic knocks, marks, cracks, scratches, wear, imperfections, repairs, and alterations. There are some losses to the veneer and ormolu mounts, which add to their authenticity and character. Stock No.: 8640. These stands may be sold separately. Comes with a 30-day no-quibble money-back guarantee. Competitive UK and international door-to-door shipping available. Internal Ref: 8640.
