Description

This is a beautiful dining set comprising an antique William IV flame mahogany dining table and a beautiful set of eight William IV Dining Chairs, Circa 1830 in date.. This amazing table can seat eight people in comfort and ten if required. It has been hand-crafted from solid mahogany and the beautifully figured flame mahogany top is rectangular with rounded corners and has two leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion. The leaves can be easily removed and stored away when not required. The table is raised on four hand carved turned and reeded tapering legs that terminate in their original brass and porcelain cup castors. The fabulous set of eight Regency Period George IV flame mahogany dining chairs, are in the manner of Gillow of Lancaster. The set comprising six side chairs and two armchairs. The backrests with tablet top rails with beautifully relief carved paterae at each end, above openwork horizontal splats carved with scallopshells. The seats have been reupholstered in a stunning blue striped fabric, above elegant straight and reeded front legs and splayed back legs. These chairs have been masterfully crafted in beautiful solid flame mahogany.
