SoldItem Reference: SA1109112*Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

This elegant cigarette case is crafted in sterling silver and features a stunning guilloché enamel finish in radiant turquoise. The guilloché technique showcases intricate, repetitive engraved patterns beneath the enamel, enhancing its visual appeal. The design highlights a sunburst pattern radiating from the center, exemplifying meticulous craftsmanship and a sophisticated Art Deco influence. The compact rectangular form is both functional and decorative, embodying the luxury of its era. The reverse side is adorned with an engine-turned design, adding an extra touch of refinement. The interior is fully silver gilt, providing a protective layer that prevents the contents inside from oxidizing or tarnishing the silver. The cigarette case comes with an elegant box, making it a great and stylish gift—a cigarette case for small cigarettes or an ideal business card holder. Made by William Neale & Sons, the piece is fully hallmarked for Birmingham, 1934. William Neale's Art Deco and post-Deco colored guilloché enamel creations are highly collectible. Dimensions: 81.46 mm x 71.2 mm x 10.28 mm Weight: 103.51 g Condition: Excellent; no visible enamel damage. The case locks and un...
