Description

This cigarette case is an exquisite piece of Art Deco design, hallmarked for London 1932. The front features a sleek black enamel finish with one corner adorned by a marcasite rectangular motif, adding subtle sophistication. The reverse side is decorated with an engine-turned pattern, showcasing meticulous craftsmanship. Very attractive silver stripes around the contour. Made of sterling silver, the case embodies the refined elegance of its era. The interior is fully silver-gilt, protecting the silver from oxidation caused by its contents, making it functional and stylish, designed to hold cigarettes in one halves. There's a hallmark on the clasp. The case includes a suede pouch, making it a great and stylish gift—a cigarette case for small cigarettes or an ideal business card holder. Due to the smudging of the mark it is not possible to identify the manufacturer, the piece is fully hallmarked for London, 1932. Dimensions: 86.45 mm x 64.83mm ? 9.38mm Weight: 102.37 g Condition: excellent condition, enamel is not damaged, inside the rubber band on one edge is not fixed, the case locks and unlocks perfectly.
