Description

A good sized (5ft) 153cm desk. A good quality mahogany victorian piece. In excellent working condition. There is a key which locks the top 3 drawers. The keather has no tears but it is faded and has some stains as you would expect. In our opinion it is absolutely fine and a new leather would detract from the look of the desk but if required we could fit a new one. The brass knob handles are later. A large piece at a very reasonable price
