Description

An antique Georgian mahogany bowfront chest of drawers with charmingly neat proportions. The chest features a classic bowfront design with three long, graduated drawers, each fitted with decorative embossed brass backplates and drop handles. It is raised on out-swept bracket feet and a shaped apron. Sunlight has mellowed the mahogany, giving the front a beautifully faded, softer tone that contrasts with the richer mahogany tones on the sides. The front and top exhibit significant fading from sunlight (pictured), while the sides retain their original rich mahogany tones, resulting in uneven colouration. However, this does not detract from its overall appeal, and it remains a charming and practical piece. Please refer to the photos for more detail, or feel free to reach out with any questions.
