Description

Never worn this timepiece has been kept in a drawer for several dozen years, these watches were found in a factory in Berlin buried away and only brought to light 80 odd years later, in fact not until April of this year! The factory we are told closed down in 1936. In July 2022 this watch had a thorough service, fully stripped, cleaned, oiled and timed. A genuine rare opportunity to acquire a perfect condition Art Deco ladies wrist watch which is 'old new stock', that is to say it's of the period dating to the 1930's but has never been sold, marketed or worn, as you can imagine that happen very often. We have been lucky enough to have sourced a few of these watches this year, all authentic dating and original to the 1930's. Watches in this condition, from those years are unique and extremely difficult to find. Chrome-plated, never worn, slightest, superficial storage marks, very good condition for the age, 28 x 23 MM mm without lugs. Original dial with Arabic numerals, finely green hands, the hands and numerals with luminescent paint (this does not seem to be in working order), dial signed BIFORA. The glass crystal is unscratched. A Red leather croc strap has been added
