Description

Lovely little early 18th.c. oak side table c.1720. 30" x 21" top with a border of carved lunettes (probably later) and a moulded edge. Over a single oak lined drawer with a good brass acorn dropper handle. Note the early style drawer runners, recessed into the sides of the drawer. Oak sides and back. Raised on bobbin turned and block legs and feet joined with three particularly attractive bobbin turned stretchers. Some earlier rep[airs and restorations. Generally very good condition and particularly nice colour. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops.
