

SA1109527

Scale model of a Hall's patent anchor

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1109527

Date of manufacture: 1920

Dimensions

Height = 14 cm (5.5")

Description

A silver plated scale model of a Hall's patent anchor with shackle and stud link chain, circa 1920 - 1925. Shank marked: HALL'S PATENT ANCHOR Co. Ltd. SHEFFIELD MANUFACTrs N.HINGLEY & SONS Ltd. DUDLEY Height: 14 cm. Width: 7.5 cm. Length of chain: 21 cm. Total length: 35 cm. For similar Hall's patent scale model anchors see the collections of: National Maritime Museum, Greenwich. Object ID: SLR1943 The Science Museum, London. Object Number:1921-434 Hall's Patent Anchors were invented by John Verity of Liverpool and John Francis Hall of Sheffield, John Hall worked at Jessop and Sons steel manufactures where he design and patented the anchor which bears his name.

Seller Details

Hatchwell Antiques

533 Kings Road London SW10 0TZ United Kingdom

Tel: 020 7351 2344

International Tel: +44 20 7351 2344

