Description

An early 19th century chiffonier made from the most stupendous cuts of mahogany and with wonderful crisp carving, a generous shape to the barley twist pillars, gadrooning all round the drawers and plinth, raised and fielded panelled doors and two keys and working locks. The pillars are full 360 degrees, not just pillasters, the dovetails are excellent, the proportions are good and the whole piece is in great condition. This chiffonier is absolutely exceptional quality by one of the best makers of the period. It is an opulent, useful and attractive piece of furniture that would have been really expensive when it was new, but now for sale for Habitat money. 98cm wide 94cm high TF076
