Description

A Regency period, rosewood small drum table with drawers, circa 1825. With circular top and banded edge, frieze with 4 drawers interspaced with 4 faux drawer fronts. All with brass knob handles. Tapered plain turned column support, on a quadform base with scroll feet, hiding small brass castors. A very rare table with petit proportions, and oozing functionality. Totally original, very attractive, and of a very high quality. This charming little table is in very good condition and ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 71 cm (28") tall, and the top is 60.5 cm (24") in diameter. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good and total original condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. All original. Old marks and blemishes on the top, now well polished in. Lovely colour, with great patina, the original polish has marks but is all well waxed polished in. There are some chips to the edges around the feet from the castors. Otherwise, no obvious signs or damage or repair. Sensitive cleaned and waxed polished. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furn...
