Description

A MAGNIFICENT LARGE MARINE SEASCAPE BY JAMES HARDY EXTREMELY GOOD QUALITY IN ORIGINAL SWEEP FRAME WITH EARLY CANVAS BORDER THE BATTLE OF TRAFALGAR This is a vibrant and original oil on canvas depicting a ferocious naval battle between three large galleons with guns firing cannon shots in high seas. One vessel has sunk and another galleon is listing badly. This would be one of many battles between the warring fleets of the British and French Navies and which eventually ended in a major battle detailed below which was recorded in history as the famous Battle of Trafalgar where Lord Nelson was fatally injured. The wonderfully executed work is professionally painted and although unsigned it is a magnificent work. The oil on canvas painting is presented within a good quality decorative swept gilt frame.
