Description

This exquisite 18th-century blanket box / coffin, is a remarkable example of craftsmanship and style. Crafted from high-quality wood, it features a beautifully carved front, adding a touch of elegance to any room. The desirable small size of this piece makes it both a unique and practical storage solution, ideal for smaller spaces. Stood on square legs, the coffin opens to reveal a spacious central compartment, perfect for storing blankets, linens, or other treasured items. The original hinges and a key add to its authentic charm, ensuring both functionality and security. The stunning grain and rich colour of the wood are a testament to its fine quality, and the overall condition is excellent, with minimal signs of age. This rare piece is a beautiful blend of form and function, perfect for any antique enthusiast or collector.
