Description

This exquisite 19th-century pedestal desk, crafted from fine mahogany, is a stunning example of antique furniture. Known for its exceptional quality, the desk features a rich green leather writing top, perfect for both work and display. The desk is designed with practicality in mind, coming apart into three sections for easy transport. It boasts 9 drawers in total, 4 on each side and one in the centre, providing generous storage space for papers, stationery, and other essentials. The original knob handles on each drawer complement the desk's timeless design. Supported on casters for easy movement, the pedestals enhance the overall functionality while showcasing the desk's magnificent grain and colour. In great condition, this piece adds both style and utility to any space, making it an ideal choice for a home office or study.
