Description

1 Fine Large Historic British Oil Painting Portrait Royal Monarch His Majesty King George VI 1895-1952 In Naval Uniform Framed. Impress & wow your guests & clients in your home or office with this Royal masterpiece. Title "Historic British Royal Monarch King George VI In Naval Uniform" C1950. Subject portrait of the known Royal British King George VI. In front profile facing & his powerful gaze is fixed at the viewer. He is wearing dressed in his rather fine black naval uniform with his medals on display, his sleeves have golden Epaulettes Insignia showing. His hands are cupped together holding his glasses., he is standing outside in a mainly overcast dark grey sky with some lighter areas shining through. Signed by the British artist F.W.H. McCance. In our opinion this is a rather exceptional portrait example of King George VI. Circa mid 20th century 1950. Medium oil on board. It has recently been reframed in a fine Larson Juhl gold leaf spoon profile design gilt wood frame, which enhances the painting even further. Frame is an impressive display size being 74 cm wide and 87 cm high. George VI (Albert Frederick Arthur George; 14 December 1895 – 6 February 1952) was King ...
