Description

A stunning antique Arts and Crafts oak side table or lamp table, dating from circa 1900. With rectangular over-sailing top, lovely arched details to the apron and standing on four tapered legs with tear drop cut outs and united by an H-cross stretcher. The piece is unmarked but is reminiscent of E.G. Punnett for William Birch. It is constructed of substantial quarter-sawn oak and is very well-made, the medullary rays in the grain are very well defined. Solid and sturdy, a stylish table with good colour and beautiful original patina would make a great lamp table or side table. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Solid and sturdy, with beautiful colour and patina to the oak. Some discolouration and marks to the top commensurate with age. One of the small oak pegs to the legs is a later replacement. Dimensions: Width across top: 61cm Depth across top: 40cm Height: 63cm Width at Feet: 68cm
