Description

Dating from the Edwardian period, the bell shaped body of this tall decanter is cut with elongated panels of snowflakes. It stands on a petal and starburst base. The quality of this antique decanter is outstanding. There is a minute chip to the underside of the base, this is hardly detectable, can only be seen from the underside and in no way detracts from the appearance of this beautiful decanter. Apart from this, the condition is excellent. A beautiful item to own or a very special gift. c. 1905 Code: CMT16 Height: 13.25" 33.5cm Base Diameter: 4" 10 cm
