Description

Antique George III oak eight day longcase clock having a well proportioned oak longcase with a painted enamel dial depicting pretty roses in bloom, elegantly designed hands, an 8 day duration striking on the hours on a bell. The case has good detail with canted corners to the base, a book matched trunk door with shaped edge and an attractive shaped decorated panel below the swan neck pediment. John Kent of Salford, Manchester was working from 1804 and is listed in Clock and Watchmakers of the World book by Loomes. In wonderful original condition in full working order. Dimensions: Height 225cm (88.58 in) Width 53.5cm (21.06 in) Depth 25cm (9.82 in) Date 1800 Condition / Servicing Note: Please note that antique clocks are complex and sensitive mechanical objects. While some clocks may be running at the time of listing we cannot guarantee ongoing performance without a full inspection and testing period by our specialist horologist. Where inspection, testing, or servicing is required this process can take between 2-12 weeks depending on the clock, the work needed, and current workload. This careful approach helps ensure the clock is properly assessed rather than rush...
