Description

This wonderful, rare, signed Frederick Hurten Rhead vase is offered in fabulous condition. With cream hearts against a green background, the vase really pops. It is a superb design, hand-potted and hand-painted by FH Rhead. inscribed signature to the base along with the numbers 1001 within a rectangle. Possibly a prototype? An exceptionally collectible piece by a highly sought-after designer. Rago Auctions in the US famous for selling decorative arts pieces, recently estimated this fabulous vase at between $1000 - $2000. Frederick Hurten Rhead, the designer of Fiesta Ware, was born in Staffordshire, England, to a family of artistically talented potters. He learned the ceramic trade in the potteries of Stoke-on-Trent. He served a five-year apprenticeship under his father, Frederick Alfred Rhead, at the Brownsfield Pottery in Burslem and took classes at the Wedgewood Institute. He emigrated to the United States in 1902 and spent the next four decades in a variety of pottery positions, including instructor at a tuberculosis sanitarium in California, his own pottery, the Rhead Pottery of California, and Roseville and Weller Potteries, both in Ohio. His last position was th...
