Description

Super Quality Heals Teak 1920's Garden Dining Table & Chairs This solid teak Heals antique garden dining set has been in the same family for over 50 years, barn stored in the Winter so in excellent, strong and complete condition. Made in the twenties by Castles Ship Breaking Company, Baltic Wharf, Westminster London from teak timbers from decommissioned battleships. Labelled by the maker for Heals of London's Tottenham Court Road showroom who retailed them. A great design, perfect for a smaller garden, terrace or balcony. The slatted square dining table has silhouette urn shaped legs with a under shelf, the four dining chairs fit neatly under the table when not in use, forming a neat cube. All the pieces are in superb condition. Heavy high quality, a very lovely example. Dimensions Height: 74cm (29.37") Width: 95cm (37.70") Depth: 95cm (37.70")
